

Magnificent Mandalas-Doodle Only

Join me for some Zen-time, in this doodle-only version of Magnificent Mandalas. Discover a variety of simple petal shapes and filler designs that can be combined and layered into intricate mandala designs. While we won't stitch on machines, I will cover mark-free tricks for transferring your mandala designs into whole cloth quilted mandalas, including cutwork reveals!

List of Supplies:

- 1-2 Plastic sheet protectors (or similar sized piece of acrylic plastic or vinyl)
- 2-5 pieces of unlined paper (ie. Printer paper)
- Fine-tipped dry erase marker (ie. Expo brand) and Pencil
- 2" scrap of batting or tissue, and a few Q-tips to use as an eraser
- 1-2 Dice
- Camera/Smart Phone/Tablet to take pictures

Optional Supplies:

- Design/Drafting Tools: straight edge ruler, compass (I'll introduce you to the Dasco Pro Giant Compass with Rod and Stanley FATMAX Chisel Compass which are great for creating larger circles, both are under $10 at most home improvement stores)
- Assorted markers/colored pencils

If you are curious as to what supplies are involved for creating a Wholecloth quilted mandala, you can download the list of supplies and access more pictures of Magnificent Mandalas on my website teaching page: melbeachquilts.com/teaching
Questions/concerns? Feel free to contact me at melbeach@melbeachquilts.com

